ARCADIA Jamaica.

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE

By Appointment

FOR ADDRESS ONLY

The Island of Jamaica is well-wooded. The flora, rich and varied, includes orchids. The cultivation of sugar, once the great industry of the West Indies has declined but fruit cultivation. bananas, oranges, etc. is expanding. Ginger, coffee and tobacco are grown and the export of rum is large and increasing.

Copyright London
Printed in England
Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" "WIDE-WIDE-WORLD" Series Postcard No. 4001 JAMAICA
ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

LL3300